CUSTOMIZED TRAINING

Training Designed for Your Organization

Who We Are

The College of Extended Learning at San Francisco State University offers professional development and training for businesses, agencies and non profit organizations in the Bay Area and beyond. Our specialized programs in business, finance, education, technology and more can open up a world of dynamic, flexible, and convenient training options for your staff.

Why Choose SF State Extended Learning?

Expert Faculty

Our instructors are highly qualified SF State faculty, industry leaders, entrepreneurs and business influencers.

Assessment and Customized Design

We work with organizations to develop cost-effective training solutions and delivery formats that fit a team's learning style and work schedules.

Downtown Location

Our unique Downtown Campus is located in the Westfield Centre on Market Street at the Powell Street Muni and BART stations.

What We Offer

Training for your staff at your workplace – After a needs assessment, we propose a training solution and recommend a format that fits your organizational culture. This might mean tailored scheduling like morning or afternoon meetings, extended lunchtime forums, or full day sessions.

Open Courses at the Downtown Campus – Choose from individual courses, short intensives or complete certificate programs offered in classroom or online formats. As a partner, you can take advantage of corporate discounts when staff attend programs at the Downtown Campus.

Blended Learning – We can offer instructor-led workshops along with online classes.
