Earn a degree with versatile applications. History and current events prove the importance of understanding race-related social issues. Our fully online program examines various forms of oppression and resistance. The curriculum analyzes the intersections of identity, connecting race to gender, class, sexuality and religion. Through interdisciplinary instruction, you gain college-level qualifications and critical thinking skills to quick start your success.

Why enroll in our Ethnic Studies Online Bachelor’s Degree Completion program?

Emphasize Unity in Community
Strengthen any neighborhood, organization or company by learning to recognize and address race-related social issues.

Complete your College Degree
For individuals with at least 60 college credits who want to finish their degree. Open for all majors. Conditional admission available.

Learn from Industry Experts
Our faculty consists of professionals and academic leaders in the field of race and gender studies, social justice issues and history. Learn and collaborate with your peers in your cohort to gain knowledge and help enhance your career goals.

Online all the Time
With online classes, you complete your course work when convenient to your schedule, anywhere you have an internet connection.
Program Overview

The Ethnic Studies Online Bachelor’s Degree Completion program requires 60 units total.

The 3 core courses account for 9 units:
- ETHS 100: Introduction to Ethnic Studies (if you’ve taken a different Ethnic Studies course, it may substitute)
- ETHS 300 GW: Writing in Ethnic Studies
- ETHS 580: Cumulative Experience Final Reflection

Choose 18 units in the 3 major research areas of Ethnic Studies, known as breadth requirements. There’s 6 units each in:
- Health and Environment in Communities of Color
- Arts, Literature and Community
- History and Social Movement

Choose 15 units of program electives from any of these 5 departments:
- Africana Studies
- American Indian Studies
- Asian American Studies
- Latina and Latino Studies
- Race and Resistance Studies

One program elective must include course material on California Native Peoples, for example: AIS 410.

Complete 18 units in university electives. At least 6 units must be in upper division classes. General Education requirements and complementary studies can be satisfied with these electives.

All 60 units of course materials are available online. Courses can be taken in any order, except for ETHS 580 which should be reserved for your final semester. Available classes change every semester and a students can take a maximum of 5 classes per term.

- Ethnic Studies Bachelor’s Degree: $22,000 for 60 units / $375 for each unit

Learn more at cel.sfsu.edu/ethnicstudies