Build bridges across borders. The definition of diversity, San Francisco has a vast collection of everything, from cultures to companies. The city houses the headquarters for world famous names including Twitter, Gap, Salesforce and Fitbit. According to the latest census*, a variety of ethnic identities amounts to 52% of its population.

San Francisco State University is located within this international intersection of innovation. U.S. News* ranked SF State as one of the top 16 “Most Diverse National Universities” in the United States. We invite students from our Partner Universities to join our ever expanding community and participate in programs specially designed to develop a wider worldview.

PROGRAMS OVERVIEW

Semester @ SF State: Complete one or two semesters and earn an official SF State transcript. Choose courses from over 100 different disciplines and learn from professors with professional field experience. Enroll in any course with vacancy. Resident students have enrollment priority.
