Walk the walk and talk the talk. Practice English by exploring San Francisco neighborhoods and discovering the diverse Bay Area community. Share stories of seeing the Golden Gate Bridge or speaking with industry experts in business or technology. Take selfies with San Francisco State University students and start setting up your international network. Finally, a program to boost your English skills and your Instagram feed. San Francisco Discover offers both comprehensive language classes at SF State’s Downtown Campus and an exciting experience using the language in real world situations.
