Do you have an interest in finding a career that will be both challenging and provide job security? According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics demand for paralegals is expected to grow as an expanding population increasingly requires legal services, especially in areas such as intellectual property, health care, international law, elder issues, criminal law, and environmental law.

If you’re interested in learning more, come to our open house and talk to a panel of SFSU Paralegal Program faculty and graduates. They will discuss the real work of paralegals and answer questions about their experiences in the profession and the SFSU program. Guest speaker will be Colton Gover an account executive at Robert Half Legal, a legal placement service.

The ABA-approved SFSU Paralegal certificate is comprised of ten courses (30 academic units) which may be completed in as few as 4 or 5 semesters. All classes are taught at the SFSU Downtown Campus at 835 Market Street 6th Floor in San Francisco, with both daytime and evening classes offered.

If you cannot attend this Open House, but would like to receive more information, please visit our website at www.cel.sfsu.edu/paralegal or contact the program coordinator, Eduardo Cerpa, at 415-817-4244 or ecerpa@sfsu.edu.
